

THE BREAKWATER YACHT CLUB of Sag Harbor, which raised $5,000 in May for the sixth annual Race Against Drug Abuse, a County-sponsored event, handed over the proceeds to Sag Harbor officials yesterday morning, to make sure the funds are used locally. An anti-drug-use program will be established in the Sag Harbor schools. On hand for the ceremony are, from left, Frederick Stelle, Breakwater's commodore, Bruce Tait of Breakwater, Walter Baeker, drug abuse educator at Pierson High School, Tim Miller, a student who is president of a student anti-drug organization, Mayor George E. Butts, Southampton Town Supervisor Mardythe DiPirro, County Legislator Fred W. Thiele Jr., and Victor Rugg, director of the County Division of Substance Abuse Services. Virginia Bennett 1988.

Mr. Schoen was one of the original organizers of the Sag Harbor Volunteer Ambulance Corps in 1933. Now, 55 years later, he is still an active member and still certified in cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

Springs

Loren R. Craft
324-8748

A get-acquainted session with Peter M. Lisi, the new Springs School Superintendent, will be hosted by the Springs Parent-Teacher Association from 7 to 9 p.m. Friday, Sept. 9, in the School library. Mr. Lisi, his wife, Kathleen, and their four children will be on hand for the reception, to which parents, teachers, and Springs residents have been invited.

A book sale to benefit the Springs Historical Society will be held Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the lawn of Parsons-Anderson House on Parsons Lane.

Memorial Plaque

Veterans of the Korean and Vietnam Wars who were Springs residents when they entered the service have until the end of this month to submit their names for inclusion on a new plaque to be displayed on the monument outside Ashawagh Hall. Names can be sent to Heather Anderson, 84 Church Lane, East Hampton, who is chairman of the Springs Improvement Society's monument committee.

The new plaque is part of a monument restoration project undertaken by the Society. The base of the monument, badly eroded over the years, will be completely rebuilt, and volunteers from the Montauk Coast Guard Station will renovate the cannon atop the monument.

The Springs Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons will meet Friday, Sept. 9, at 1 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church. There will be a guest speaker, Peter Pockriss of the East Hampton Town Marine Museum.

The Barnes Landing Association meets at 9:30 a.m. Saturday to elect officers for 1989, to consider changes in its constitution, and to plan next year's activities. The meeting will be in the Association's building on Barnes Hole Road.

Bonac Race Plaque

A plaque in memory of the late Peter Landi of Springs will be awarded to the East Hampton runner who turns in the best time in the Great Bonac Foot Race, a ten-kilometer run through Springs that will be held Monday.

The plaque, according to Dr. Howard Lebwith of Springs, an organizer of the race, reads "Great Bonac Foot Race. Peter Landi Award. In Memory Of A Loving Spirit." Peter died last year of cancer.

The Race, sponsored by the Springs Improvement Society to benefit its scholarship fund, starts at 9 p.m. in front of Ashawagh Hall. It follows a course offering views of Accabonac Harbor, Gardiner's Bay, and Three Mile Harbor.

Now in its 11th year, the Race has a $10 entry fee. Registration at Ashawagh Hall will begin from 8 p.m.

THE TOY TABLE at the Springs Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary's indoor yard sale Saturday was a hit with Stephanie King, left, and Nicole Rost.

Loren R. Craft

sausage as a far members, familie will be the last ev 1988.

At S

St. Ann's Th Street is having a tinue through La for the Thrift Sho tember are 10 a.m. 1 to 4 p.m. Wed and Fridays, and Saturdays. The on Tuesdays.

St. Ann's Chur ing of the Anin lawn after the 9:3 day. Parishioners community who pate have been animals to the C pets, even horse The Blessing of been a traditio Church.

The Comm Bridgehampton

THE BEACH just sun-worship

Prizes will be awarded to all participants

Interior Decorators

Custom Draperies

Re-Upholstery

Crack/Luxor, Pe rode, Lami