LIBRARY - 1940

MARRIAGES, BIRTHS, BAPTISMS, DEATHS,
COMMUNICANTS

A pleasant surprise came with the introduction of Morton C. Penny-packer, Suffolk County Historian and noted author and authority on Long Island historical data. Mr. Penny-packer prefaced his remarks with the presentation to the Church of a beautifully bound copy of the complete history of the Church which was prepared under his direction by the talented staff of the East Hampton Free Library. This is a priceless and astounding work, originally completed in 1940 and giving complete and detailed information concerning births, baptisms, marriages and deaths of the countless folks who have been connected with the Old First Church since the inception of its organization long before the erection of the present building.

One of the finest historical papers which we have ever heard, briefly outlining the history of the Church was read by Elder Kenneth W. Anderson, substituting for Miss Russella J. Hazard, who authored it. (Miss Hazard's paper, is so interestingly written that the Editor plans to publish it in full in a future edition of the Express.)

Under the heading of Reminiscences, some very interesting and amusing incidents were related by various members past and present. Mrs. Frank Heinrichs, who has been an active member in the church for almost a half century spoke of the many happy years of service she had experienced in the church work. Elder Richard C. Graveley brought Greetings from the Glen Cove Presbyterian church which he attends during his absence from the Harbor. He also mentioned various birthdays of prominent church members which fall in the month of May. They were Dr. Morley B. Lewis, Mrs. Fred S. Pulver, Mrs. F. E. Shelton and Miss Ella White. He pointed out that Miss White will be ninety years old on the 26th of this month. Miss Louise L. Painter was introduced as the lady who organized the Women's Missionary Society in the Church in 1899. This organization is still very active. The highlight of the reminiscences came with the presentation of Lewis C. Austin, the well known Editor of the Riverhead News, who kept the audience laughing with his accounts of the old days when he was a boy and used to go to Sunday School in the same room where the celebration was being held. He confessed to a bit of waywardness when he admitted that he was one of the boys who contrived to hoist the 'Skull and Crossbones' flag to the top of the Church Tower a number of years ago. He also brought smiles and even a blush to the faces of a few of the ladies present when he reminded them of incidents of bygone days in which they all played a part.

A beautiful rendition of the famous hymn "Jesus Savior Pilot Me," written by the Rev. Edward Hopper, former pastor of the church, and said to have been inspired by the voyages of the early Sag Harbor Whalers, was given by a mixed quartet, made up of Mrs. Dorothy Conroy Fulmer, Miss Ellen Bates, Rev. George M. Runner, also a former Pastor of the Church, and Frank E. Shelton.

Rev. Crawford announced that Sag Harbor's beloved Radio Stars, the Moylan Sisters, had advised him that they would sing the Hymn on their Radio Program, this Sunday at 12:45 p. m., over WJZ in honor of the 100th Anniversary.

Brilliant solos were artistically given by Miss Joan Bates and Mrs. Dorothy Conroy Fulmer and the Rev. George M. Runner.

The evening was made complete with a sparkling address. The Rev. George M. Runner, pastor of this church from 1918 to 1920 and now pastor of the Hillside Presbyterian church of Hillside, N. J., was in his usual form and his address left nothing to be desired. The more than four hour long celebration ended with the entire assemblage singing the old hymn, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," followed with the Benediction by the pastor, Rev. Donald Crawford.

VITAL RECORDS OF THE

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SAG HARBOR, L.I.

From 1791 to 1914

Copied from the original Record Books.

With inexcusable lapses, duplications and omissions, similar to those in the East Hampton Church Records.

Typed by

Elizabeth Wood and Natalie Gilbert

For the East Hampton Free Library,

August 1940.

The frequent requests for these records induced the East Hampton Free Library to have a copy made that would include all in one volume and avoid the necessity of using near a dozen of the original books when an item was needed. Many will find them very helpful but some will be disappointed for there are lapses that seem inexcusable. Because of the expense an alphabetical index could not be included but so far as possible they will be found in chronological order. In some cases this was impossible for the names of some of the members were not recorded until long after they had united with the church.

It will be noticed that the Baptisms begin in 1797 but there are none recorded for 1807 or 1808; or 1809, 10 or 11; or for the thirty years between 1832 and 1852, and following the baptisms in 1890 are recorded some in 1887 and 1889.

The marriage records are first mentioned in 1797 but are not recorded between 1806 and 1812 nor between 1835 and 1852. None are recorded between 1876 and 1880.

Deaths are recorded for 1795 and 1796, which is before the births and marriage records were commenced. But none are mentioned between 1806 and 1812, and there is no record of any between 1833 and 1868, a period of 35 years. Between 1873 and 1884 there is another lapse of ten years.

The list of Church Members begins in 1791 and reads: 1792, 1791, 1792, 1793, 1800, 1803, 1805, 1796, 1797, 1800, 1805, 1796, 1800, 1797, 1795, 1791 1806, 1808, 1805, 1781, 1797 etc., which is not only confusing but also shows that it was long after some of them became members that the matter was remembered and recorded.

Profession of Faith and a Covenant Publicly Owned and Acknowledged
by Persons on their Admission to the Church of Christ in Sag Harbor. (L. 1.)

You profess your firm and serious belief that the scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the word of God, and the only infallible rule of faith and practice: That there is one living and true God existing in three persons, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost: That God made man in His own image; and entered into a Covenant of life with him upon condition of perfect obedience: That our first parents violated this covenant, and thereby involved themselves and all their posterity in a state of total depravity, guilt and condemnation: That God of his mere eternal, Sovereign, electing love and mercy sent his son to redeem and save sinners; and that all, who, by the special operations of the Holy Ghost, being renewed in the spirit of their minds, believe in him, are immediately justified by divine grace through the atonement of Christ; crucified by his spirit, and shall be certainly kept, by his power, through faith, unto salvation. That at the end of the world the Lord Jesus Christ will be revealed from heaven to judge the quick and dead; and the righteous, being at death perfect in holiness, he will receive and welcome to the possession of the kingdom prepared for them from before the foundation of the world; and condemn the wicked to endless punishment, everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.

You do now, as you humbly hope, in divine strength, take hold of the covenant of grace, and solemnly avouch the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son and Holy Ghost to be your God. Feeling your utterly lost estate in yourself, repenting your sins, and loathing and condemning yourself for account of them; you receive and rely upon the Lord Jesus Christ, as your whole and only Saviour. Repenting from henceforth your sins, you engage to walk in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord; to have your heart united to the people of God; to love and treat them as brethren, & in common with yourself members of the mystical body of Christ. (By Parents) (And as you avouch the Lord Jehovah to be your God, so you also solemnly promise to be the God of your children; accordingly you covenant and engage to dedicate them to God in baptism, and bring them up in the nurture, fear, and admonition of the Lord; and faithfully to instruct your family in the doctrine and duties of religion; and to pray for and with your household.)

A Profession of Faith and a Covenant Publicly Owned and Acknowledged
by Persons on their Admission to the Church of Christ in Sag Harbor. (L. I.)

You promise to submit yourself to the government of Christ in his church; and particularly as administered in this Church; and You profess your firm and serious belief that the scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the word of God, and the only infallible rule of faith and practice: That there is one living and true God existing in three persons, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost: That God made man in his own image; and entered into a Covenant of life with him upon condition of perfect obedience: That our first parents violated this covenant, and thereby involved themselves and all their posterity in a state of total depravity, guilt and condemnation: That God of his mere eternal, Sovereign, electing love and mercy sent his son to redeem and save sinners; and that all, who, by the special operations of the Holy-Ghost, being renewed in the spirit of their minds, believe in him, are immediately justified by divine grace through the atonement of Christ; sanctified by his spirit, and shall be certainly kept, by his power, through faith, unto salvation. That at the end of the world the Lord Jesus Christ will be revealed from heaven to judge the quick and dead; and the righteous, being at death made perfect in holiness, he will receive and welcome to the possession of the kingdom prepared for them from before the foundation of the world; and condemn the wicked to endless punishment, everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.

1817

You do now, as you humbly hope, in divine strength, take hold of the covenant of grace, and solemnly avouch the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son and Holy Ghost to be your God. You promise to submit yourself to the government of Christ in his church; and particularly as administered in this Church; and to seek in all things its spiritual peace and prosperity, until God, in his holy providence, shall remove you by death or regular dismissal. And, whereas the great Redeemer hath given Pastors and Teachers for the perfecting of the Saints, and for, the edification of the Body of Christ, you engage to stand by an orthodox ministry which may at any time be set over you according to your place and power; and unitedly to uphold and support the impartial administration of the holy ordinances in this church.

Thus, in the presence of God, and his people, you profess, covenant and promise. We accordingly receive and welcome you to our communion; and promise to walk towards you in the fellowship of the gospel, to watch over you, and, if necessary, faithfully to exhort, admonish, and reprove you for your spiritual good -- Amen.

The three above baptisms were made by the Rev. Walter A. Henricks. He said he believed they were made on Children's Day in 1915. Mrs. Richardson joins him in that statement. He neglected to record them and with his statement and Mrs. Richardson's by way of advisement, I have placed the data as above.

S. H. Barrett.
